PROMINENT MASON

ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL DIED AT HIS HOME HERE SUNDAY MORNING.

SPLENDID TYPE OF CITIZENSHIP

Had Resided Here Continuously Quarter of a Century—Funeral Services at Masonic Temple Tuesday Afternoon.

Archibald Campbell, a prominent Mason and for twenty years stationary engineer at the Missouri Pacific shops, died after a lingering illness at his home, 1320 East Sixth street, at 7:45 o'clock Sunday morning.

Mr. Campbell had been in ill health for months, and had been bedfast since September 13, last. His condition gradually grew worse, and Saturday evening he was pronounced at death's door.

Mr. Campbell was born at Comrie, Scotland, on March 9, 1842. He enlisted in the second British Dragoons at Liverpool, later receiving an honorable discharge.

He came to America in 1867 and located in Callaway county, where on October 28, 1869, he was married to Miss Melissa A. Northway.

In 1885 Mr. Campbell came to Sedalia, where he had resided continuously since.

He was a Presbyterian by faith, although he had not affiliated with any church in Sedalia.

He joined the Masonic fraternity at Cedar City, Mo., on December 4, 1880, and on Nov. 19, 1886, transferred his membership to Granite lodge No. 272, A. F. & A. M., this city.

He belonged to Granite lodge, A. F. & A. M.; Sedalia chapter No. 18, Royal Arch Masons; St. Omer Commandery No. 11, Knights Templar; King David council No. 31, Royal and Select Masters, and had taken sixteen degrees in the Scottish Rite Masons.

Three years ago Mr. Campbell resigned his position with the Missouri Pacific railway to become caretaker of the Masonic Temple, which position he held at the time of his death.

Besides the widow, deceased leaves one son, M. L. Campbell, a Missouri Pacific machinist.

Besides being a Mason, Mr. Campbell carried insurance in the Woodmen of the World and the Royal Tribe of Joseph.

The body will be removed to the Masonic Temple, with a Knight Templar escort, at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, where it will rest until 2:30 o'clock, when the Rev. R. C. Miller, pastor of the East Sedalia Baptist church, will conduct funeral services.

The services will be under the auspices of the Masons. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

These gentlemen will be pallbearers:

Masons—C. F. Ernst, James Gornal, E. E. Coddling and Dr. Ira T. Bronson.

Woodmen of the World—E. M. Shields and Julius Kolbehn.

THE LADIES OF SOROSIS

Program Arranged for This Afternoon's Meeting.

The following program has been arranged for the regular weekly meeting of Sorosis this afternoon, it being Sorosis Monthly Magazine, Vol. 2, No. 5:

Editorial, "Need of the Development of a National Taste for Art and Literature"—Mrs. Wood.

Edmund Clarence Stedman—Mrs. Kelly.

The Living Room, a paper written and forwarded from Chicago—Miss Whittier.

Children and the Arts and Crafts Movement—Mrs. Lee Montgomery.

Story—Mrs. Wallace.

DISGRACE TO THE CITY

The Sidewalks Down Town Were on Sunday Morning.

The sidewalks along the downtown paved streets of Sedalia on Sunday were a disgrace to even a backwoods town in any civilized community. The gentlemen who have the contract for sweeping the paved thoroughfares were out with their sweeper early Saturday night, raising clouds of dust that almost strangled pedestrians, and covering the sidewalks with dust that made it necessary for ladies to lift their garments in passing to keep them from being ruined.

The walks were not swept after the sweeper had made its rounds, and had a stranger dropped into the city Sunday morning and passed along Ohio avenue he would have reached the conclusion that Sedalia was, without question, the dirtiest city in the United States, bar none.

Street sweeping is desirable, but it should be done at opportune times. Dirty streets are preferable to dirty sidewalks.

This is not the first Sabbath that the same thing has occurred, and it is time some one in authority was looking after and abating the nuisance.

HAD FINE SERVICE

LADIES OF THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING.

KING'S DAUGHTERS WERE USHERS

Mrs. A. A. Ridenour Had Charge of Service—Sermon Was Preached by Mrs. Harold Cooper, Wife of the Pastor.

That the ladies of Sedalia can fill the churches better than the men was clearly demonstrated by the packed audience which last night gathered at the First Congregational church to attend the service which had been announced as being conducted entirely by the members of the feminine sex.

The young ladies of the society of King's Daughters, who had charge of the ushering, had quite a task to seat the congregation, but they certainly managed it in a way that manifested their ability.

The service was in charge of Mrs. A. A. Ridenour, and after prayer by Mrs. W. E. Furlbut and Scripture reading by Mrs. Fannie Smith, the sermon was given by the wife of the pastor, Mrs. Harold Cooper.

Every word could be heard distinctly in every part of the church, and during the sermon a fine collection of lantern slides, illustrating the sermon, were thrown on the screen.

The Rev. Cooper announced that in the near future the men of the church would have the opportunity of conducting a similar service.

WAS "SOMETHING DOING"

At the Bible School of the First Christian Church.

There were 348 in attendance, with an offering of $32.93, yesterday. This was the nineteenth anniversary of class No. 13, taught by Mrs. Dalby, with an offering of $20. She has never missed a Sunday when in town or had sickness, but supplied a substitute, nor never late at school in all of this nineteen years.

We have just bought 200 song books. Prof. Farris leads the singing and M. D. Looney the orchestra. We expect to put on the third wagonette on South Ingram avenue to the city limits to accommodate those that do not attend any other Bible school. Our aim for Easter is 500 in school and an offering of $200.

The next move will be the employment of a paid superintendent, and assistant pastor. Our beloved pastor, Brother Kokendoffer, has too much to do and must have help.—W. W. Herold, Superintendent; W. O. Terry, Assistant Superintendent.

Laymen's Missionary Conference.

A laymen's missionary conference will be held at the First Christian church tomorrow night, at which meeting three Kansas City speakers will be on the program. The purpose of the meeting is to stir up enthusiasm for the laymen's meeting to be held at Kansas City in the near future.

County Court in Session.

The judges of the county court are in session today transacting regular court business. The official bond of Mrs. H. C. Hatton, superintendent of the County Home, was approved, and as the Democrat-Sentinel goes to press the judges are selecting thirty-nine road overseers.

CHILD OF SERVANT

IT WAS TAKEN BY WIFE TO SAVE THE REPUTATION OF HER "LIEGE LORD."

REAL MOTHER CHANGES HER MIND

Foster Mother Deceived Even Nearest Neighbors as to Parentage—Caused Scandal of Huge Proportions.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 7.—To conceal from her neighbors a newly found skeleton in the family closet, Mrs. Samuel A. Taylor, of Belleville, arranged to take and to treat as her own the expected child of her household servant, Mary Bowman.

To aid in the deception of the neighbors, Mrs. Taylor remained indoors for several weeks and recently caused a woman nurse to pay several visits to her house. She sent the housemaid away, and when the child was born in a St. Louis hospital, she smuggled it into her home and exhibited it as her own.

Her effort came to naught Saturday, when her husband was arraigned on charges brought by the girl, who had changed her mind about parting from her child.

Besides the warrant which was served on Taylor, there is a second warrant, which has not been served, in which Taylor and his wife are charged with kidnapping the infant.

The strange arrangement by which the wife sought to spare the husband, and to keep the tongue of scandal from their home, was described to a reporter by Taylor, after he had obtained a continuance in Magistrate Evans' court at Belleville.

"Mary Bowman came to our home a year ago," he said. "Early in this winter my wife suspected that all was not right, and questioned Mary."

What Mary told her about me she would not believe until I myself admitted it to her.

"Then, instead of reproaching me, she said we must handle this matter in such a manner as not to cause others to talk about us. She said Mary must go away, and that when the child was born it must be passed as our own."

"Mary went to a hospital in St. Louis, and early in January the baby, a boy, was born there. As soon as it was able to be removed, she caused it to be brought to our house, and it was announced in the neighborhood that a child had been born to my wife and me. A woman nurse helped by backing up my wife's story, and apparently none of the neighbors suspected anything wrong."

Mary Bowman was not in court Saturday, and it could not be learned what influenced her to discard the agreement which Taylor says she made with him and his wife.

The girl went to Chief of Police Neugeb, of Belleville, Friday and outlined her charges against the Taylors. It was decided to arrest the husband first, and to dissuade the girl, if possible, from prosecuting Mrs. Taylor on the kidnapping charge.

The Taylors have no children of their own. Mary Bowman is 19 years old.

ASSAULTED BY BLACK HAND

Victim Says That His Injuries Are Result of An Accident.

Pittsburg, Kas., Feb. 7.—Louise Azzi was assaulted here Friday night and says he fell from a wagon, but a black-hand note signed with a cross which was nailed on his wagon says that he was the first of three persons who was going to get it for testifying in the recent Bork murder trial here. The county attorney has the note.

THREE SUITS ARE FILED

One Is Against the Missouri Pacific for $2,000 Damages.

P. T. Martin, of Otterville, through Attorneys Sangree & Bohling, today brought suit in circuit court against the Missouri Pacific railway for $1,000 actual and $1,000 punitive damages for being ejected from one of defendant's trains at Tipton on January 29, last. Plaintiff alleges one of defendant's conductors accused him of being drunk after he boarded the train, and later caused his arrest at Tipton on that charge.

Antonia Hugschmidt, through Attorneys Sangree & Bohling, today brought suit in circuit court against Fred and A. Maria Schoenhauer for the payment of a promissory note for $175, given to plaintiff on December 9, 1907.

O. M. Haines, through Attorneys Lawson and Williams, today brought suit in circuit court against D. A. Lopp for $800 damages, accruing from the sale of a half interest in the Pinless Clothes Line Co. by the plaintiff to defendant for a house and some lots at Climax Springs, Camden county.

Married by Fr. Neiberg. Mr. Joseph Hirtl and Miss Marie Schencher were married this morning with nuptial mass at Sacred Heart church at 7 o'clock by Fr. Neiberg. Witnesses to the ceremony were Marcus King and Francis Hirtl.

BOYCOTT ON HATS

THE MEN REFUSE TO BE HELD UP AND WHY SHOULDN'T WE LEADERS ARGUE?

SUMMER NEAR IS HINT IN DENVER

Good Looking Hair, False or Real, Sufficient, but the Price of Millinery Nowadays Is Simply Outrageous.

Denver, Feb. 7.—Women of Denver have started a boycott against the milliners.

Mrs. Claude E. Griffey and Mrs. Edward L. Prentiss, two of the younger matrons in Denver society, have announced that they stand ready to be known as the leaders of the boycott, and scores of their friends have made known their determination to step in line. The trouble is over the price of hats.

"We have been imposed upon long enough," the women announce, "and we are tired of paying $50 for a hat we once could buy for $10. It is as absurd as any meat or coal trust that ever existed."

"It is nearing summer, anyway," said Mrs. Griffey, "and any woman with good looking hair, false or real, looks well without a hat."

"And hair," exclaimed Mrs. Prentiss, "why, the way they charge us for hair is something to marvel at, outrageous. But think of not being able to get the simplest hat for less than $25. If that isn't a holdup game, I'd like to know what is."

"The men boycott people who hold them up," put in Mrs. Griffey, "and why can't the women?"

A LOCAL DAY NURSERY

Good Meeting to That End Was Held This Forenoon.

At a meeting this morning of those who are trying to bring about the establishment of a day nursery child's hospital, with a view to the betterment of conditions among Sedalia's worthy poor, a permanent organization was effected.

Heretofore the meetings had been of an informal nature, with a temporary organization; but so much interest is being brought out and the meeting this morning was so largely attended, that on motion the temporary officers, Mr. C. E. West, president, and Miss Hattie Gold, secretary, were made the permanent president and secretary of the organization.

Mrs. C. W. Flower was chosen first vice president, Mr. A. D. Stanley was made treasurer, with Mrs. Samuel R. Querry as assistant.

Mr. Clagett, Mr. Spencer and Mr. Robbins were empowered to draft rules and regulations governing the organization.

Mrs. C. W. Flower, Mrs. W. H. Powell, Mrs. E. A. Wood, Mr. S. E. Spencer and Mr. Kokendoffer were made a committee to conclude arrangements for suitable quarters for carrying out the undertaking, after which the meeting adjourned.

The Printers Initiated Two.

Sedalia Typographical Union No. 206 held its regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon and initiated Charles Botz, of the Sedalia Journal, and John S. Vaught, a Missouri Pacific clerk, who desired to join the union preliminary to getting back into the printing business. Two applications, both out-of-town men, were also received.

JOY OVER DIVORCE

HOTEL OWNER INVITES THREE TOWNS TO HELP HIM CELEBRATE.

WRS JUST GLAD TO BE FREE AGAIN

Worth Thirty Thousand Dollars, His Vent to Happiness Leaves Him Seven Thousand After His "Jubilee."

Madison, Ill., Feb. 7.—Zeiva Stalshim, owner of a hotel at Madison, Ill., and reputed to be worth $30,000, Saturday became so ecstatically joyful when granted a divorce at Edwardsville he at once spent $23,000 to show his feeling in the matter.

Of the amount $20,000 was voluntarily given to his three children, who are now in Austria with their mother. Sending out couriers from Edwardsville to gather his friends at Madison and Granite City, Stalshim started homeward, lavishing money as he went.

At Madison he celebrated with hundreds of friends and acquaintances and then sent through the byways and highways of Granite City to get still others to aid him in making merry.

Summoning as many as his hotel would hold, Stalshim spent the remainder of the evening there showing them how happy he was to be a free man again.

Mrs. Stalshim recently returned to Austria with her children. Stalshim, who is 35 years old, charged in his petition she deserted him. After he filed his petition for divorce he spent a considerable part of his time telling friends and acquaintances what he would do when he got the divorce. At other times he appeared to be consumed with anxiety lest the divorce be denied him.

To all he vigorously denied he had any intention of remarrying. Saturday when Judge Hadley handed down Stalshim's divorce, along with sixteen others, the enthusiastic Austrian immediately got beside himself with joy.

In the court room he began his arrangements for the celebration by sending out runners to prepare the feast which was to entertain three towns, the total population of which will exceed 15,000 people.

When Stalshim got to Madison and viewed the preparations he determined, though the crowds were dense, there were not enough to help him properly celebrate.

Pausing only long enough to thank Judge Hadley for granting him his liberation, Stalshim rushed off to the neighboring town of Granite City. There he got guests by the hundreds and sent them on to his hotel, while he went after still more.

CIRCUIT COURT ENTRIES

Worrell Manufacturing Co. Wins Suit Against J. R. Van Dyne.

The first day of the February term of circuit court convened today, with Judge Louis Hoffman on the bench. The following entries were made on the docket:

Fell Down Cellar Stairs.

Mrs. R. A. Early, 510 North Grand avenue, fell down the cellar stairs at her home Sunday, sustaining bruises and contusions that compelled her to take to her bed, but fortunately no bones were broken. Mrs. Early is 60 years old, and it was feared there might be bad effects following the shock, but she is reported as resting much easier today.

HE'S MISSOURI LAD

FORTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO LEFT HOME AT FAYETTE, HOWARD COUNTY.

THEN ONLY FIFTEEN YEARS OLD

Went to Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1863, and Now He's Coming Home an Admiral in the United States Navy.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 7.—Forty-seven years ago a boy of 15 years of age left home in Fayette, Howard county, Mo. He headed for the navy in 1863, going to Annapolis.

He went to the station carrying what he had already learned to call his "dunnage." The father and mother, proud, but in tears, went along, and there was quite a little crowd to see the lad start on his long journey.

Now that Missourian is coming home, after forty-seven years. He is coming home on the battleship Tennessee, with his own pennant flying from the peak, with seven cruisers in his wake, more than 3,000 enlisted men and officers, some of them of flag rank, watching every move he makes.

His name is Uriel Sebree and he is rear admiral in the United States navy.

"It is quite a difference between brother's going away and coming back," said Frank Sebree yesterday, speaking of the homeward bound voyage his brother, the admiral, is making from Asiatic waters.

"I would like to see him bring his fleet in. I saw him go away to get it, a little bit of a fellow, full of pluck and Missouri grit. We used to think he would get on, but none of us thought he would get to be an admiral."

NEGROES DIE TOMORROW

A Special Guard Is Watching the Convicted Assaultants.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 7.—John Williams and George Reynolds, the negroes convicted of the assault upon Mrs. W. F. Jackson, will be hanged at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Williams attempted to make a single-handed jail delivery last week. Since then he has been chained in his cell and a special guard has been watching him. Reynolds feigned insanity for some weeks.

All arrangements for the hanging have been made.

No Hope for Negroes.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 7.—Gov. Hadley today refused to interfere in the case of George Williams and George Reynolds, negroes, who are to be hanged in Kansas City tomorrow.

A TEMPERANCE TALKER

She Will Be in Sedalia Saturday and Sunday Next.

Mrs. Lora La Mañice, of Joplin, state press superintendent of the W. C. T. U. in Missouri, also state evangelist, will be in Sedalia Saturday and Sunday next, and will deliver several addresses here on temperance work.

The local W. C. T. U. is perfecting plans for her entertainment during her stay in Sedalia, and will in all probability give her a reception Saturday afternoon.

Disturbed the Peace.

William Napoleon, a negro, was given ten days in jail for disturbing the peace by Justice J. B. Rickman today.

Husband Comes Home Unexpectedly and Wife Develops Sudden Case of Headache That Results in Seeking Druggist.

Collinsville, Ill., Feb. 7.—A resident of Collinsville returned home from a trip very late and entirely unexpectedly the other night. He had intended being away a week, but transacted his business in a shorter period and decided to return late Thursday night.

Thinking to surprise the dear companion of his joys and sorrows he let himself quietly into the house with his night key, removed his shoes and stole upstairs. At the door of the room he and his wife occupied he tapped gently and entered.

His wife had retired, and, not wishing to disturb her by turning on the light, he undressed in the dark and composed himself for rest.

The lady, however, developed a violent headache.

Let us call the L. C., otherwise Leading Citizen, Harry, that not being his name.

"Harry, love," she said, "my head aches so badly it just seems as if it would split. Won't you go down to the drug store and get some powders for it?"

Forthwith Harry tumbled out of bed, groped about for his clothing and departed for the drug store.

It was when he came to pay for the powders that the denouement came. In the pocket of the trousers he wore Harry found a roll of bills, which, being counted, was found to total $2,300. He was greatly astonished, as he knew he had had less than a dollar in currency when he had reached home a few minutes previously.

Then he looked down at the trousers. They fitted very well, but the material was a trifle different in pattern from those he had worn.

Harry took the powders home, but did not turn on the light. Neither did he ask any questions or make any remarks. He left the house and has since been living with his mother.

On Friday he deposited the money in a Collinsville bank, where the owner, or anyone who claims to be the owner, may have it on demand. So far no one has asked for it. Residents of the town are expected to keep keen eyes on the bank window, where inquiries would be made.

KELLERMAN DIVORCE SUIT

Defendant in the Case Makes Answer to Wife.

Ward Kellerman, whose wife, Mrs. Rose Gertrude Kellerman, on January 11, last, sued him for divorce, today filed answer to the petition, in which he denies each and every allegation made by the plaintiff, with the exception of that pertaining to his marriage to her.

W. W. Blain and C. C. Kelly represent him.

In the answer Mr. Kellerman asks that the decree be denied her and given to him. He makes some forty or more allegations, among them being these:

That the plaintiff cursed and abused him; tore her engagement ring from her finger and threw it on the floor with curses; fussed, quarreled and cursed all about her on one occasion from 7:30 p. m. until midnight; assaulted him, beat, scratched and tried to bite him; accused him of cheating in a checker game; reprimanded S. R. Smith, local manager of the Bell Telephone company, for contemplating the establishment of a switchboard at Beaman; accused defendant of murdering two wives, and that she deserted him in the midst of a great crowd at the world's fair at St. Louis.

The Death of John Stobel.

John Stobel, a bartender, died from lung trouble at his home, 1203 West Main street, at 10 o'clock this morning, after a lingering illness of several months. He was 37 years of age, and leaves a widow and one child. Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday.

TO RETAIN DR. HILL.

The question of retaining the services of President A. Ross Hill as head of the State University is agitating educational circles of Missouri, and fears are expressed that the offer of Minnesota, with its greater opportunities, may be accepted. It is not, it seems, a matter of salary with Dr. Hill; that is of secondary importance, but the broad field and the greater chance to do things appeals to him most strongly.

It appears, however, that if Missouri will do her part and make the University what it should be, Dr. Hill will consent to stay, otherwise he will leave.

Steps are now being taken to show that the mass of the people are on the side of progress, and petitions are being circulated, addressed to the governor, asking that he do what he can to meet Dr. Hill's desires and retain his services.

One of these petitions will be circulated in Sedalia, and should, and doubtless will, be numerous signed.
In a statement issued at Jefferson City, Governor Hadley said he had received letters from persons in all parts of the state urging him to do what he could to induce Dr. Hill to remain at the University of Missouri.

"I have done and will continue to do all that I can to convince Dr. Hill that his best opportunity for useful public service along educational lines is in the state of Missouri.
"I undertake to say that the answer to the question that is presented to President Hill for decision rests with the people of Missouri rather than with him, myself or any other public official.

"I do not understand that the offer
that has come to him from Minnesota is attractive on account of any suggested increase in salary. I do not understand that he is dissatisfied with the present situation on account of any lack of salary, or on account of any unfriendliness on the part of the legislature, because he has frequently stated to me that he felt that the Forty-fifth general assembly dealt with the University as fairly as it could deal, in view of the limited revenue of the state.

"If I understand the situation correctly, the question that exists in Dr.
Hill's mind is whether the University will receive such support from the people of Missouri as will give him
the opportunities for public service along educational lines here as he would enjoy in the position that has been offered him.

"The people of Missouri must awaken to a realization of the fact that they must make provisions for a more liberal support of education, work, both along general and scientific lines.

"The state of Missouri should not permit other states, in no way our equal in population or wealth, to take from us our leading educators."

HEAR THE CONSUMER.

In a lively debate in the house,
Representative Boutell, of Illinois, a member of the committee on ways and means, undertook to defend the Payne-Aldrich tariff, declaring that it satisfies the country, especially the southern states, in a high degree. To this Representative Heflin, of Alabama, responded that the tariff is mainly responsible for the dearness of the necessaries of living, and that the cost of raising cotton was never so great as in the last year.

But the consumers, to the number of $5,000,000 or so, whom Senator Lodge described as "myths," have taken the floor and in no uncertain tones are giving their experiences as to the effect of the new tariff in enhancing the cost of the necessities of living—their food, their clothing and their housing.

If the tariff is not the sole cause of the rise in the cost of necessities of living, the chief responsibility of this unfortunate condition lies at its door.
The dearness of commodities is not felt merely "in the hats where poor men lie," but it has reached multitudes who a little while ago deemed their earnings and incomes more than sufficient for their wants. They conceived that the practice of economy and self-denial would tide them over a temporary reaction, and they find themselves struggling with real privation.

Were the dearness confined to meats, to which public attention and public action are mainly directed,
this might be regarded as an exceptional and fortuitous phenomenon.
But it is seen that wherever the duty on an article is so high as to make its importation unprofitable the cost of the rival domestic commodity is the greatest. The same goods, of which the prices at home are driven to exorbitant rates, are sold for less in foreign markets.

American meats are sold by the beef trust in London at prices at which consumers in Sedalia would be glad to obtain them, even by the exercise of self-denial. The steel trust makes no denial or concealment of the fact that it sells its products for less in foreign markets than at home,
and this is justified by the political economists of protection with the plea that it prevents stagnation in trade and gives constant employment to labor.

Whilst Andrew Carnegie declares that protection is not needed by the greatest of the trusts, Judge Gary admits as much, saying that he is concerned solely for the independent manufacturer, and proceeds forthwith to secure a prohibitive duty on building materials of steel.

But the patient and long-enduring American consumers are at last on the march. The cry has gone up throughout the land that the spoils system which makes dear the necessaries of living must come to an end. One by one the fallacies and humbugs that propped it are falling away amid the contempt of its former votaries.

The great self-denial movement of the people against dearness of the necessaries of living is but the preliminary step to removing the cause.
He who puts his ear to the ground
may hear the tread of the coming millions.

CARD INDEX MOTHERHOOD.

An example of the card index system in its most ridiculous aspect—statistics run mad—is shown by Frances Marie Bjorkman in Van Norden's Magazine for February. Her article, "An Experiment in Scientific Motherhood," gives the details by which the mother of Leonard Noyes, aged 2 years, is bringing him up.

Mrs. Noyes, having a "trained mind," tackled the problem of raising her child by the use of a card index system. She has a card for every local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, him with it as well as her heart. A child, she decided, is not a piece of property to be exploited for the enjoyment of his parents. "She therefore distinguished between the things which are merely a gratification to the mother and those fundamental to the good of the child."

"The forms of maternal devotion that are commonly most admired,"
the writer tells us, "such as singing,
dandling and showing off to company,
having been shown to be distinctly harmful to the delicate sensitive organism of the baby, she set down as actually selfish in that they gave emotional satisfaction to the mother at the child's expense."

Maternal instinct was all very well,
but it must be supplemented by "accurate, reliable, scientific knowledge."

After providing Leonard with scientific clothing, his mother got for him a nice, large card index, and how he crowded, scientifically, at the sight of it! Upon this card index she has recorded all his natural functions in detail. Every hiccup, every colicky spasm, every rash and pimple are there set down with scientific accu-cy, in nice straight columns for the purpose. Each dose of medicine, each meal, each nap, each spell of crying was given place.

This scientific mother, we are told,
knew that Shakespeare's picture of the infant in the first of the Sever Ages was no true likeness of what a twentieth century baby should be.
"Regurgitation, she had learned, was caused directly by overfeeding," and she therefore gauged his meals accordingly. From the beginning of his second month his weight greatly exceeded the average for that age. He was systematically exercised, massaged scientifically, and held by his feet over the mother's knee, with his head on the floor. At three months he could pull himself up on an improvised trapeze.

panying the article is a wonder. It is something between a football diagram and the map of Chicago. From it we have worried the following summary:

Leonard had 6.5 meals per day;
that there were intervals of 5 2-3 hours between meals, that he was asleep three-quarters of the whole time; that his regurgitation was "4-5 pounds per meal," and that he cried 37 minutes per day at intervals, for which no one can blame him.

SALOONS AT ST. JOSEPH

Board Head's Plan Is Opposed by Mayor.

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 7.—President
Frank B. Fulkerson of the police board would like to see all saloons in St. Joseph closed from 10 p. m. to 6 a. m., but he would compromise on the hours of midnight to 6 a. m.

Mayor Clayton, the other member of the excise board, says an early closing law would work a hardship on the hotels and cafes, which would be unable to cater to after-theater parties and late suppers. He does not object to the "moral tone of the masses" being raised, but he does not want the pleasure of others curtailed.

"I would make the closing hours
even longer," said Commissioner Fulkerson today, "but I think that five hours would be a good start. I fear that an ordinance to close the saloons from 10 p. m. to 6 a. m. would meet with such opposition as to defeat it."

BIG INCREASE IN SUICIDE

Said to Be Due to the Increased Cost of Living.

New York, Feb. 7.—Effects of the increased cost of living on the working classes are shown in the largely expanded number of applications to the city for aid, as disclosed in figures
just made public.

The rising tide of inability to make income keep pace with living expenses is indicated in the fact that during the last twelve months more than 60,000 persons sought relief from the charities department, an increase of more than 80 per cent in five years.
Suicides increased nearly 50 per cent
from 1904 to 1909.

Rockefeller Offered to Investigate
White Slave Traffic.

New York, Feb. 7.—So interested is John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in the inquiry into the traffic in women, which is the task of the grand jury of which he is foreman, that he offered to give $25,000 to defray the expenses of the investigation.

Believing that no private fund
should be drawn upon for the purposes of the investigation, both Judge
O'Sullivan and District Attorney Whitman declined the offer, with thanks.

On the district attorney's request
the board of estimate and apportionment appropriated $25,000 to pay for the investigation.

POOR OLD SEDALIA TEAM

Did Not Do Very Well Against Clinton Outfit.

The High school basket ball team
from Sedalia came to Clinton yesterday for the express purpose of showing our "back woods" team just how the game of basket ball should be played, says Saturday's Clinton Democrat.

But alas for Sedalia's vanity! Instead of showing Clinton they were shown, and oh, such a showing, too!
When the referees' whistles sounded
the close of the second half the score stood 63 to 16 in favor of Clinton and the visitors found themselves beaten to a standstill.

Although Clinton won by a large score, the game was nevertheless a good one. The visiting team put up an excellent game, but Clinton's fast team and head work were too much for them.

HAGLEY GETS FINE COW

Holstein Will Help Solve High Price
Problem.

Following his advice to those who attended the meeting of the Missouri Land and Industrial congress to obtain better stock for their farms, Governor Hadley last week authorized Dr. William P. Cutler, state food and drug commissioner, a dairy expert, to purchase a fine cow for the mansion
at Jefferson City, says Sunday's St.
Louis Republic.

The animal, a Holstein grade, was bought Friday from P. P. Lewis, of Crescent, Mo., president of the Missouri State Dairy association. She is worth $150 and has a milk capacity of six gallons a day, which will go far toward filling any possible void caused by the high price of meat. The animal will be shipped to Jefferson City this week.

Heartburn, Gas, Indigestion and Other Stomach Distress Goes Before
You Realize It—Get
Some Now and Take It.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and besides what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

ADVICE TO GIRLS

MRS. BELLE TRACY TELLS THEM
'TIS BEST TO LUNCH ON
"SANDWICHES."

PLAGUE NOURISHED BY PASTRIES

Tuberculosis Society Lecturer Tabooes Dancing—Don't Swap Chewing Gum and Also Avoid Tight Lacing.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Belle Tracy, of 3917 Maffit avenue, lecturer of the Municipal Tuberculosis commission of St. Louis, is the only woman holding a similar position west of the Mississippi river, and is one of less than a dozen women engaged in like work in the United States. In the three weeks' service since her appointment she has talked to 562 working girls in St. Louis and 1760 school children on the effects of tuberculosis.

At noonday meetings Mrs. Tracy talks to the girls on the floor of the factory in which they work, immediately after lunch. She advises them to eat sandwiches instead of pastry for lunch, and explains the value of nourishing foods. She tells them to wear loose clothing and explains the evils of tight lacing. Ventilation in work places, recreation and exercise also is urged upon the young women, but they are warned against excessive dancing.

During school hours Mrs. Tracy visits school rooms by permission of the school authorities. To the little ones she issues a warning not to swap chewing gum, not to take bites from apples partly eaten by other children, and urges the use of individual drinking cups as a preventive of communicating tuberculosis from one to another. Ventilation and cleanliness is the keynote of her addresses to young and old.

Mrs. Tracy's work is confined to girls and children. She seeks to make the young folks understand the results of the dread disease and endeavors to upset the old fallacy that tuberculosis is hereditary. She tells them that consumption is communicable, preventable and curable if taken in hand in time. The people with whom the lecturer talks are invited to attend the tuberculosis exhibit, where by diagrams, pictures and literature the ravages of the disease can be checked by proper care in daily life.

For ten years, Mrs. Tracy was a teacher in the public schools of St. Louis. She has been interested in charity and slum work many years, and is a grand officer in the Queen's Daughters of Missouri. In her charity missions she studied conditions which lead to tuberculosis and is considered an expert on its cause and prevention. She was appointed as lecturer by the St. Louis Commission of Tuberculosis January 12.

The exhibit under Mrs. Tracy's control is movable, and now is located at 2502 North Fourteenth street. It will remain there until February 20, and will then be taken to another section of the city. At times when Mrs. Tracy has no engagements with working girls or school children she addresses meetings of women in churches or social gatherings in the homes when invited.

In explaining the prevention of tuberculosis, Mrs. Tracy gives the girls in factories certain rules tending to prevent the disease, and secures permission to post placards in factories keeping the rules in sight of the workers. In several factories the managers, at Mrs. Tracy's request, have appointed certain workmen to care for the ventilation each week.

That her talks are doing good is shown by the questions asked of Mrs. Tracy by working girls at the close of her addresses when they ask about the care of those at home. In many instances the girls outline the home conditions, and ask the lecturer for advice concerning the betterment of them. Several times Mrs. Tracy has been granted additional time to complete her talk when the time for work had come and the girls were interested in the remarks.

That small children listen attentively was verified at one school. The day after Mrs. Tracy lectured, a teacher entered the room soon after adjournment at the noon hour and found several boys industriously pulling down the windows from the top. The teacher asked the reason.

"The lady told us to get plenty of fresh air, and you told us to do as she said, and we are doing it," was the reply.

GREAT LIQUOR WAR

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE FILES A
75,000 NAME PETITION
IN CHICAGO.

LIBERALS ARE GREATLY AMAZED

Will Be the Bitterest Political Campaign in Country's History,
With Much Money Expended on Each Side.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Chicago is on the verge of one of the bitterest political campaigns in the history of the country.

The Anti-Saloon League has filed its petition, containing 74,805 names, and the question whether Chicago is to go dry will be on the ballot in April.

The task of securing all these signatures was a herculean one, and the success of the movement amazed the liquor interests as well as the thousands of "liberals" throughout the city. The entire country will watch the struggle from now on.

Never in the history of the country has so much interest been aroused on the liquor question.

Chicago, the second largest city in the United States, has been chosen by the enemies of the liquor traffic for the battle. It is the largest city in which such a battle has ever been waged.

Interest heretofore displayed by the liquor interests and "liberals" was intensified when it became known that the "drys" not only had secured the required number of names to the petition, but 14,000 to spare.

The victory for the anti-saloon forces was complete and decisive. It brought the liquor men in Chicago face to face with a new and startling situation.

On both sides preparations for a long and bitter battle has begun. Every power and resource of the saloon-keepers and the "liberals" will be brought forth.

The city records show that in 1909 nearly 8,000 owners of saloons paid

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

GIVEN NO VERDICT

THE JURY IN THE CASE OF MRS.
FORD, CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL.

WOMAN AGAIN RELEASED ON BOND

Warriner's Testimony Said to Have Caused Disagreement—Case May Be Dropped, as the Prosecution Is Disgusted.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 7.—After twenty-four hours deliberation, the jury in the case of Mrs. Jeannette Stewart-Ford, charged with blackmailing Charles L. Warriner, defaulting local treasurer of the Big Four railroad, was unable to reach an agreement and was discharged.

Just how many ballots were taken was not said, but when they returned they reported that eight stood for acquittal and four were for conviction. The unexpected end to the sensational case was explained by two of the jurymen as due to the fact that a majority of their colleagues refused to give any credit to the testimony of Warriner.

The moment the report was read, Mrs. Ford, who sat in the court room waiting the return of the jury, half rose to her feet and then sank back to her chair in a complete nervous collapse.

Her maid and a doctor were summoned and they soon revived her and took her home in a carriage.

She later told members of the press that she had hoped for an acquittal, that all Saturday night she sat by her window and fervently prayed for a favorable verdict.

"The future of the case is now in the hands of Prosecutor Hunt, and if he wishes another trial he may have it and in full," said Attorney Thorndyke yesterday.

"If Prosecutor Hunt, of Hamilton county, brings the same charge against Mrs. Jeannette Timmins Stewart Ford and prosecutes the case, as Mrs. Ford's attorney, I will go to Columbus and lay before the Ohio general assembly certain facts now in my possession which will bring the whole affair into the limelight of a legislative investigation."

"I think I have enough information to cause the general assembly to turn its lights toward Cincinnati and the Big Four offices; and I am positive that they will be surprised if they go deep enough in that."

"If the prosecutor wishes, we will try the case again, and I think I am on the right track when I say that if another jury is called we will acquit Mrs. Ford."

"She has been slandered and mistreated by everybody with whom she ever had dealings until she is little more than a physical wreck. I think she has had enough prosecuting."

Prosecutor Hunt announced last night that he expected to bring the woman to trial again within the next three weeks.

At the same time he intimated that he might abandon the case. He asserted that the result of the trial was due to a "species of diseased mentality which seemed to affect American jurors and prevent them from convicting a woman on any charge."

Pending her trial, Mrs. Ford was released under $2,500 bond, furnished by a holding company.

ROBBERS STILL FREE

Kansas Bandits Evade Officers in Missouri Hills.

Pittsburg, Kas., Feb. 7.—Efforts of the sheriff's posse that searched yesterday for robbers who held up the passengers on the Missouri Pacific train five miles east of here Saturday night were fruitless.

The chase has not been given up, however, and a body of officers is at work in the mining camps north of here, whence it is believed the highwaymen came.

NOT SEEK RE-ELECTION

Senator Unwilling to Have Others Contribute to Candidacy.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Lacking the means to maintain the personal political organization essential to success, Senator Frank P. Flint, of Los Angeles, Cal., announced late yesterday that he would not be a candidate for re-election to the senate.

"The considerations which have led to my determination may be stated very simply," he said. "Under the primary law in the state of California it has become a requisite essential to success that a candidate for the United States senate should have a personal political organization in every state, senatorial and assembly district."

"I have not myself the means to maintain such an organization, and I am unwilling to enter upon a contest for the United States senate wherein others contribute to keep up a state-wide organization in my behalf."

Senator Flint's term will expire March 3, 1911. He began his service in the senate on March 4, 1905, succeeding Thomas R. Bard.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S QUEUE.

It Hid a Luxuriant Suit of Straight and Very Dark Hair.

The Father of his Country concealed a luxuriant suit of hair beneath his queue wig. Many now wish the old fashion were in vogue, to conceal thinned hair or baldness. Yet no one need have thin hair nor be bald, if he cure the dandruff that causes both. Dandruff can not be cured by scouring the scalp, because it is a germ disease, and the germ has to be killed. Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ—no other hair preparation will. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." There's no cure for dandruff but to kill the germ. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SUED FOR $25,000

A SPOKANE, WASH., ARCHITECT SUES EASTERN GIRL WHO HAD JILTED HIM.

NO RIVAL IS NAMED IN THE CASE

Wedding Postponed Twice, Once Because Girl at Poughkeepsie, New York, Said She Was "Afraid."

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Miss Elizabeth Kelly, a prominent society girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kelly, of 11 Garfield place, has been served with papers in a breach of promise suit for $25,000 damages instituted by Leicester M. Pond, a young architect of Spokane, Wash.

As yet no answer has been returned and so far as can be learned neither Miss Kelly nor her parents have taken legal counsel. It is stated by friends of the family that they probably will take no notice whatever of the proceedings.

The reason given for breaking the engagement and generally credited, was that Miss Kelly, who has always been very much attached to her mother, was unwilling to go so far away as Spokane to live.

Miss Kelly's engagement to any man other than Pond has never been announced.

Miss Kelly has been prominent in society since her debut about five years ago after her graduation from Wyndon Hall school. Her mother inherited $250,000 from her uncle, William W. Cornell.

Wedding Day Once Set.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 7.—Leicester Pond, in an interview with a correspondent, said:

"I became engaged to Miss Kelly, who, by the way, is a grandniece of Alonzo B. Cornell, founder of the university, a year ago last June, and we were to be married in a year. The engagement was announced in the newspapers in April, 1909, with due formality and the date of the wedding was fixed for June 22."

"When I reached Poughkeepsie the regatta season was at its height and I found preparations made for an elaborate wedding. The Kelly home was full of bridesmaids, friends and relatives. So I was surprised, to put it mildly, when Miss Kelly called me aside and told me she would like to have the wedding postponed from Thursday until the following Monday."

"She had been worn out by social affairs, she said, and was near a nervous breakdown. I consented. On Monday we planned to be married and were about to take the train, when Miss Kelly again asked a postponement. She was just afraid to be married, she said, and wanted the wedding put off until October, for she wanted to stay in the east long enough to get the fall styles."

"Nothing was said about any other man and I came back to Spokane rather curious, especially as I had heard gossip in Poughkeepsie that made me wonder."

"When I got back I found that she had wired me before I left in June, asking me not to come. Pretty soon there came a letter full of remorse. Miss Kelly said she was sorry that she acted as she did. A few weeks later another letter came, breaking off the engagement. It was very brief. Miss Kelly said she had found she did not love me as she had once believed, and that was all."

PLASTERING FALLS AND MIS-TAKEN FOR EXPLOSION OF A BOILER.

MEN AT LECTURE RUSH FOR EXITS

Two Fell Out of Windows—Missouri University Professor Who Was Delivering an Address Was One of the Victims.

Columbia, Mo., Feb. 7.—Two hundred students were thrown into a panic and Prof. T. A. Street, of the school of law, and J. S. Moore, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., badly injured last afternoon when a heavy section of plaster molding fell while a lecture was in progress.

Prof. Street was lecturing on Gladstone in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium to an audience of university men.

Thinking the boiler had blown up, the students rushed to the front of the building, demolishing chairs and other furniture.

Prof. Street was crowded backwards through a window and fell to the ground, eight feet below. He was severely cut by the glass.

J. S. Moore fell from another window and sustained a sprained ankle.

George McKinney, a student, was cut by glass. Several other students were cut and bruised in the crush.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Third Degree."

"The Third Degree" Charles Klein's latest sensational play, which comes to Wood's opera house Thursday, Feb. 10, fresh from a run of seven months at the Hudson theatre, New York, treats of certain conditions that exist in social life in New York, together with the assuming of powers by the police that have never conferred by law.

The play has certain marked metaphysical features, combined with the exposition of hypnotism produced by physical force instead of mental suggestion. In the end young Jeffries is cleared and his wife earns for herself the recognition that has heretofore been denied her.

The cast which Henry B. Harris has selected to present the play is one of superior quality and includes such well known people as Miss Fernanda Eliscu, the eminent young actress, who has to her credit one season as leading lady with Arnold Daly, one season each in support of Maude Adams, Grace George, Mrs. Fiske and a season as stock star in New York at the Yiddish theatre, where she is the idol of playgoers. Paul Everton, well remembered locally for his splendid work in "The Lion and the Mouse," is conspicuous for his strong delineation of the character of the lawyer. The supporting company includes Miss Margaret Drew, E. A. Eberle, Alfred Moore, Francis Bonn, Ralph Ramsey, Abner Symmons, Harry Forseman and Thomas L. Coleman.

James McCabe in "The Irish Senator" When "The Irish Senator" appears at Wood's opera house next Sunday night, Feb. 13, our theater-goers will witness the same cast headed by Mr. James McCabe, at the popular prices of 25c, 35c and 50c, as the one that has toured the country for the past two seasons at dollar prices. No comedy for the past few seasons has given as much good, refined comedy as has "The Irish Senator." There are sixty laughs to the minute and a sure cure for the blues. The management guarantees this attraction as one of the best of the season.

WERE DIVORCED IN 1895

But Aged Indiana Couple Decide They Can't Live Apart.

Noblesville, Ind., Feb. 7.—The marriage of John Greyer and Mrs. Malinda Bennett, of this city, yesterday has a tinge of romance that is out of the ordinary. Both the bridegroom and the bride are 75 years of age.

Fifty-one years ago the couple were married, and lived together until 1895, when they were divorced. The husband went to Columbus Grove, Ohio, and two years later his former wife was married to a man named Bennett. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett soon separated and Mrs. Bennett was given a divorce.

A correspondence sprang up between the two lovers of years ago, which ripened into love and the happy marriage yesterday was the result.

Carthage, Mo., Feb. 7.—Robbers entered the store of the Ramsay Mercantile company early Sunday morning, blew open the safe and escaped with $350 in cash and several other articles of value.

Almost $500 worth of fine rugs and cloaks were piled on the safe and saturated with water to muffle the sound of the explosion.

This is the largest of the numerous robberies perpetrated in this city and vicinity in the past week, which is probably the work of a gang of robbers.

He had grasped her by the throat and the boy shot his father twice. The boy surrendered to the police.

NO SMOKE HOUSE NEEDED

The modern method of smoking meat by application of Our Liquid Smoke not only produces better results in every way, but does it at a minimum expense. One quart will thoroughly "Smoke" 250 pounds of meat and the whole process will not consume an hour's time.

The saving in the shrinkage of the meat (often as high as 15 per cent, smoke-house way), will pay for the "Liquid Smoke" several times over. If you have not used "Liquid Smoke" as yet, try it on some of your hams this year and notice the improvement.

TABLE EXPENSE

Is a mighty important question in every household—it's one that needs serious thought.

Most things bought for the house last a long time, and it usually pays to look at the quality more than the price.

In groceries, as in the other things, quality counts as much as price. This can easily be proven, by close watch upon the table expense for a month.

Good grades of groceries make little waste, and the waste is worth more consideration than an occasional extra penny or two.

Here is a selection of staple goods, at prices that are actual economy.

Los Angeles Widow Drops $1,160 She Saved to Buy Home.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Thomas McNallen lost $1,160 Saturday night while alighting from a street car.

Mrs. McNallen is a widow with three small children to support. She had saved in an endeavor to get enough to buy a home. The money lost represented everything of value she owned. She carried the money in a small purse in her stocking.

As she stepped from the car her stocking ripped and the purse dropped to the street. She noticed the loss almost immediately and called several pedestrians to assist her in a search, but she could not find her property.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root. Home of Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Boys' Corn Growing Contest

Season of 1910

Columbia, Mo., Feb. 7.—The Boys' Corn Growing contest was organized in 1906 for the purpose of stimulating a greater interest among Missouri farm boys in growing more corn and better corn. When a boy is trained to do one thing well he will do other things in a better manner. The contest plan for improving the corn crop of the state was inaugurated in 1907 by the state board of agriculture, in co-operation with the agricultural college and the Missouri world's fair commission.

The world's fair commission furnished a limited amount of improved seed, which was distributed to those entering the contest, and in the fall of that year prizes were offered in each county for the best samples of corn shown at county institutes held by the state board of agriculture. Experts from the agricultural college judged the corn and awarded the prizes. The first prize corn at the local contests supplied most of the corn that made up Missouri's exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

In 1906 the Missouri Corn Growers' association, in co-operation with the agricultural college and the state state agricultural college and the Boys' Corn Growing contest. The college furnished the boys with a limited amount of seed when there was no improved seed in the neighborhood available, and each boy who entered the contest agreed to plant and cultivate the corn under the direction of the agricultural college and in the fall to exhibit a sample at the local annual show. All prize corn at the local show was to be exhibited at the state fair at Sedalia and at the state corn show held in Columbia during Farmers' week. The first year about 250 boys entered the contest, and that number increased to nearly 2,500 in 1909.

There are approximately 300,000 farm families in the state and it is conservative to estimate that there are 175,000 Missouri farm boys of all ages, from 10 to 20 years. If each of these boys would grow just one acre of pure-bred corn this year, and, by giving it better cultivation, increase the yield on that one acre ten bushels above the average yield for the neighborhood, it would amount to an increased total yield of 1,750,000 bushels, which at 50 cents per bushel would add $875,000 to the wealth of the state. This can be done. Then, why not? Many of our farm boys are so situated that they can grow 16 acres, or 20 acres, or 40 acres, and this improvement can be made to cover the entire acreage.

Improvement along any line does not come spontaneously, but comes only by well organized effort. It is for the purpose of interesting progressive farmers, business men, bankers and others, that this circular is issued, suggesting plans whereby men who want to do something for the community can co-operate with the Corn Growers' association, the agricultural college and the state board of agriculture.

250 Boys in a Contest. To illustrate what has been done we give the following examples: In Perry county, last year, 250 boys entered the contest. Sixty-eight of the number entered an exhibit at the county corn show, and most of these boys attended the county institute held in Perryville, and so great was the interest among the farmers that a large number were unable to go inside the court room, although it had a seating capacity of about 500 people.

Cape Girardeau, Mercer, Livingston, Jasper and other counties held equally successful meetings. One county deserving special mention is that of Texas, situated in the Ozark country. The college of agriculture supplied over 400 boys of that county with one quart of seed each. One hundred and thirty-three of the number exhibited corn at the county institute. Mr. W. J. McGee, cashier of the Texas County bank, who has public spirit and foresight enough to see the value to his county, and incidentally to his own business, offered for the first prize a free scholarship to the winter short course in the agricultural college.

Exhibit Kept in a Bank. This exhibit is kept by the banks as a permanent attraction, and many farmers drop into the bank to see it. Real estate men never fail to show the premium corn to their customers. The bank will reap a reward in increased business and the county in improved methods of agriculture. Jasper county should also receive special mention. In that county a member of the board of agriculture, Hon. Sanford M. Smith, in co-operation with the newspapers of Carthage and the business men, offered a premium list amounting to $600, which was competed for by 250 entries.

As a result of this show, Mr. Smith took with him to the winter short course at Columbia nine boys, at the expense of the people of Jasper county. I should have mentioned that Cape Girardeau county sent, at the expense of the business men and corn growers, four boys. Two of these Cape Girardeau county boys carried away the first and second prizes offered at the state corn show in the judging contest.

Plans for 1910 Contest. There will be, as heretofore, two classes in the State Corn Growing contest: A young men's class for all those under 20 and over 16 years of age, and a boys' class for those over 10 and under 16 years of age. We would suggest that these classes be followed in local contests.

Who should organize the local contests? Any banker or business man who wants a good advertising proposition, any newspaper or public spirited farmer or county superintendent of schools, who desires to see the farm methods of the county improved, may well afford to consider the local boys' corn growing contest as a practical method of doing it.

Improved Variety of Seed. The seed should be of one or more of the improved varieties of corn, and can usually be secured from some good corn grower in the county, which we would always advise doing when possible, as it is likely to be better adapted to conditions than seed brought from a great distance. Where it is not possible to secure any improved seed the college of agriculture has arranged to furnish seed in limited quantities at 5 cents per quart, provided the shipping charges are paid by those in charge of the contest, and providing that a list of the boys entering the contest is filed with the college.

The college will not agree to send out corn to individual boys, as has been the practice heretofore, but only in bulk to the organizers of contests, who will distribute it locally. Prizes to Be Offered. Commercial clubs, banks, business firms and public spirited farmers may be enlisted to offer cash prizes or other articles of value. The most attractive prize is a free scholarship with all expenses paid, to the winter short course at Columbia during Farmers' week. (These trips should include car fare, room and board for the five days of the show), or, as has been offered by a few banks, a free scholarship to the seven weeks' short course, beginning on the first Monday in January, which will amount to about $50. If possible, it will be a wise plan to arrange a premium list, so that each boy who shows corn and attends the session of the institute shall be awarded a prize of some kind. A good pocket knife makes a very suitable prize. The lectures at these institutes are of great value, and it is desired to have every boy attend.

Sample Premium List. Grand sweepstakes prize for the ten ears of any variety making the highest score, a free scholarship for the seven weeks' short course at Columbia, amount $50. (If there is not sufficient money for this prize, then it might be made $20, to cover the five days' work during Farmers' week. Young Men's Class.—For best ten ear sample yellow corn, first prize, $4; second, $3; third, $2; fourth, $1; fifth, 50 cents. Same class, white corn.—First prize, $4; second, $3; third, $2; fourth, $1; fifth, 50 cents. Boys' Class.—Duplicate of above prizes should be offered. Special Prizes.—For best single ear yellow corn, first prize, $5; second prize, $2. For best single ear white corn, first prize, $5, second, $2. Each boy who enters the contest should be required to register with the man who is conducting the contest. He should promise to exhibit at least ten ears of his best corn at the local show, and, if this corn should be considered worthy by the judges, he should agree to permit it to be forwarded to either the state fair at Sedalia in October or to the corn show at Columbia during Farmers' week. The names of the contestants should be forwarded to the secretary of the state board of agriculture, so that literature may be supplied. County Courts May Act. County courts are authorized to appropriate money for premiums: "The county court of any county in which there shall be a regularly organized county agricultural and mechanical society, county corn growers' association, county poultry association, county stock growers' association or other organization having for its object the advancement of agriculture or its allied industries, may, if it be deemed expedient, appropriate out of the county treasury for the benefit of such society, a sum not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars in any one year; and the money so appropriated shall be drawn by the treasurer of the society on a proper warrant. Provided, said money shall be awarded by the board of directors or other proper officers in premiums or expended by them in the purchase of premiums, to be known as 'The County Court Premiums,' to be awarded according to the laws, rules and regulations of the society."—Section 4715, Session Acts 1907. The county courts can not spend $100 of the county's funds to better purpose than to encourage a boys' corn contest. Upon the suggestion of any interested citizen the court may

SWOPE CORONER'S JURY

Legal Inquiry Into Cause of Millionaire's Death Is Begun.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 7.—A coroner's jury, called to determine the cause of the death of Col. Thomas H. Swope, met at Independence, Mo., today.

If a verdict declaring that death came under unnatural circumstances is returned, it is said indictments will follow, but if an opposite verdict is reached the criminal aspect of the case will vanish and only the civil suits will be heard.

The testimony of the persons who superintended the disinterment of Swope's body, consumed the morning session. With the afternoon the testimony of members of the Swope family will begin. All members of the family are among the witnesses summoned.

WIFE HAD REMARRIED

Discovery Made in Trip to Old Home in Violation of Parole.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 7.—Thomas L. Leavis, alias Clyde Johnson, returned here to see his wife and children, only to find her remarried and his home gone.

Saturday, disconsolate, he appeared at the county jail and asked to be returned to Illinois, which state he had left while on parole from the Joliet penitentiary.

Leavis left here several years ago for the west and for some time wrote regularly to his family and furnished them with funds. When arrested and sent to the state prison his letters ceased, and, believing him dead, his wife married again.

Lately Leavis was paroled, but not allowed to leave Illinois. The desire to see his family, however, induced him to violate his promise, and he returned to Youngstown.

FELLOW SAWED OFF LOG

On Which He Was Seated and Workmen Fell Six Stories.

New York, Feb. 7.—Patrick Diskin, a carpenter, who recently came to New York from the west, is in the Lebanon hospital because he deliberately sawed off the end of his log on which he was seated six stories above the ground.

Diskin got out on the end of the beam and carefully sawed it in two between himself and the window. He and the end of the log fell together to the pavement. Neither were much hurt.

When asked why he had done such a thing Diskin replied, in some heat, "Sure, then was me orders."

TO RESTORE OPAL TO FAVOR

Jewelers Plan to Remove Silly Superstition Connected with Beautiful Stone.

The tendency of late to rid the opal of the foolish superstition that has clung to it for so many years is the result of a reform movement begun by the jewelers and art workers who appreciate its great beauty. At first the opal was not considered to be in any way connected with misfortune, but was supposed to embody all the virtues of the other stones, as it contained all their colors. It was also believed to share with the turquoise the sympathetic power of revealing the owner's state of health. If it turned pale the owner was ill, and if it brightened up perceptibly he was on the road to recovery.

The opal's reputation for misfortune dates back about six or seven centuries, when it was used in the crown of a reigning prince. Through some chemical process the stones began to contract and finally dwindled away and fell out of their setting. This bad omen, followed by the destruction of the principality, resulted in the condemnation of the opal.

Expression is an Old One.

The expression "laugh in your sleeve" harks back over the line of centuries. The old Greeks and Romans used it, but where they got it none now can tell. In those misty days everybody who could afford to wear any clothes at all had them made with wide-flowing sleeves for the reason that tight-fitting sleeves had not been invented. Neither had trousers; nor yet the accordion hat.

When any emotion led the wearer of the capacious sleeves to put his hands to his face it was more or less concealed by the loose drapery, and presently it came to be suspected in such cases that the person behind the sleeves was laughing secretly at some one else's disfigurement. In other words, he was "laughing in his sleeve."

NO FLOOD DANGER

PEOPLE OF NEW YORK NEED NOT FEAR EXPERIENCE OF FRENCH CAPITAL.

GREAT PERIL OF PUBLIC PARKS

"The Girl From Rector's" Need Not Return There, as the Famous Eating and Drinking House is a Thing of the Past.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

New York, Feb. 7.—No floods freshets or tidal waves can ever bring this metropolis to the sad state of Paris, according to engineers, who have just completed a special examination of the rocky shores of Manhattan island for the authorities here today.

With the exception of one slight depression in the surface of the water front of one small section of the upper island, Gotham is declared to be proof against all the flood tides that could ever be rolled up against it from the waters of the Atlantic or the Hudson.

While the lowlands of the mainland shore sections of Greater New York might be deluged with great damage by unusual conditions, such as have laid low the life of the French capital, the city experts declare the people of this inner island need never fear flood from that cause. While hundreds of thousands of dollars are today being raised here for the relief of stricken Paris, this special announcement of local safety from similar deluge is a real relief to the public.

Peril of the Parks.
Scores of private detectives have today been set to patrolling the parks and public playgrounds, where panic-stricken parents of this town fear to trust their children since the arrest of a mad man charged with shooting innocent boys at play.

As the probing of this shooting tragedy goes on, the revelations of the dangers to which youngsters may be subjected by lunatics at large are each day alarming mothers and fathers more and more.

Dangerous characters by the dozens, who have roamed the playgrounds in search for weeks, are being found in the search to fix the guilt in this case. It is admitted that sudden madness might have driven any one of these murderous wayfarers to attempt to kill the romping children among whom they constantly passed.

While private guards are now looking out for the boys and girls of the wealthier families, the police are preparing to take emergency measures to rid the public parks of this menace to child life.

Rector's Revels.

For the first time in the twelve years that the rich have revelled away within its walls, Rector's night restaurant lies today dark and empty. A padlock has been put upon the decorated doors, out of which the gilded crowd used to stream early each morning, leaving behind thousands of dollars in exchange for rich viands and rare wines.

Other modern night supper palaces are being erected all about the site of old Rector's, which will now remain only a name to New Yorkers. With the closing of this resort the last of the lobster refectories of the older days has disappeared from the upper Tenderloin.

In its day this gay center of night life used to serve single suppers that cost many hundreds of dollars to select little parties of bon vivants. Its rooms were always gay, its patrons jolly, and many a man-about-town will miss the atmosphere of its regular revels.

Great Giving.

With three quarters of a million dollars donated in one day this week to charities and many millions more counted as contributions for the last fortnight, the record for all philanthropic giving in the history of this city has been broken today.

After three years in which all funds for good works lay at lowest ebb, leaders in every charitable organization are now finding their appeals met by a response as bountiful as it is general. From thousands of New Yorkers for whom charity has been forced to begin at home during the last few lean years, regular subscriptions to every form of philanthropy are today being reported.

No surer sign of prosperity than this rise in charity giving is known by the economic experts here. Bad times always begin by a decrease in donations, they assert, while good times are only assured when benefi-

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM...it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain English, or, Medicine Simplified, 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations, newly revised up-to-date Edition, paper-bound, sent for 21 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

cence is at the maximum it has reached today.

Waiters Wait.

Rising to deny what they seem to consider an insult, the army of waiters about this town are today indignantly denying a court statement by the wife of one of them that over a hundred dollars a week is to be made in tips at the swell hotels.

According to the men behind the napkin, they earn only about $20 a week in wages, while their fees never aggregate over two or three dollars after sixteen hours of long, hard service.

In their general outcry, the waiters of this town complain of systems of fines for fleecing food and breaking crockery, that, they assert, makes their labors anything but productive. By the public that pushes s'iver into the palms of these men constantly, however, their statements are being taken with a grain of salt.

Eight Kaw Indians in Native Costume Call on Taft.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Senator Curtis, of Kansas, today took to the White House and introduced to President Taft eight Kaw Indians, who in honor of the occasion had adorned themselves in gorgeous native costumes.

One carried a shining tomahawk, while another fanned himself vigorously with an eagle feather fan. At together, the Indians made the gayest picture seen at the White House for some time.

MISSING GIRL IS FOUND

Flora Hendrick, of Springfield, Mo., Located With Mother.

Springfield, Mo., Feb. 7.—Flora Hendrick, the 16-year-old daughter of W. W. Hendrick, a hotel clerk here, who disappeared January 17, has been located at Spokane, Wash., with her mother.

The girl was found through the assistance of a claim agent for the Frisco railroad.

It was feared that she had met with foul play. Her parents are separated.

A Safeguard to Children.

"Our two children of six and eight years have been since infancy subject to colds and croup. About three years ago I started to use Foley's Honey and Tar, and it has never failed to prevent and cure these troubles. It is the only medicine I can get the children to take without a row." The above is from W. C. Ornstein, Green Bay, Wis., duplicates the experience of thousands of other users of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures coughs, colds and croup and prevents bronchitis and pneumonia.—Arlington Pharmacy.

NEWS OF THE RAIL

FLAGGED ONE TRAIN AND SHUNTED OTHER ONTO THE SIDE TRACK JUST IN TIME.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Mrs. Edward Block, wife of the station agent at Seeburger, Mo., performed a heroic action a few days since, and averted a railroad wreck which would have entailed serious loss of life, as well as much damage.

With her husband, she is in charge of the telegraph station there, and noted the approach of a train which showed that a disregard of orders was about to be made.

Knowing that a train was approaching from the opposite direction, she flagged the incoming train, but was horrified to hear the approach of the other train, coming in on the same track under a full head of steam.

Noting that the engineer was doing his best to respond to her signal, she ran at top speed to the switch station, opened the switch and shunted the other train to the side track, enabling it to get in the clear and avert a head-on collision.

The operator at the station further down the line had failed to get the order to the engineer, and Mrs. Block, having heard the message pass, realized the necessity for prompt action and saved the day.

Train crews and passengers were loud in their praise of the young woman's heroic action. Mrs. Block is a daughter of Mrs. C. P. Lippincott, of Barry, Ill.

Was Born Near Lexington.

John William Dean, whose appointment as general superintendent of the Denver and Rio Grande, with office at Pueblo, Col., was announced recently was born January 15, 1867, near Lexington, Mo.

He received a common school education, and began railway work as a messenger boy on the Chicago and Alton in 1877. He was later operator and agent on the Alton, and in 1882 went with the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis, now a part of the Frisco, first as operator and later as brakeman.

For three years from 1883 he was with the Missouri Pacific as copy operator in the dispatcher's office. In 1887 he was operator, and was afterwards consecutively brakeman, yardmaster, dispatcher, chief dispatcher and trainmaster on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe until 1902, when he was appointed trainmaster and superintendent of terminals of the Denver and Rio Grande.

In 1903 he was made superintendent of the Colorado and Southern, and he was superintendent of the National railroad of Mexico from 1904 to 1905, when he became trainmaster of terminals of the Illinois Central at Memphis, Tenn. Later in the same year he was made superintendent of the Missouri Pacific at St. Louis, from which position he was promoted in November, 1909.

Brakeman Stole Engines.

Angered at his discharge and his failure to get transportation to Denver, P. A. Chapman, a Colorado and Southern brakeman, stole three engines from the yards at Trinidad, Colo., and ran them through the switches to the outskirts of the city, where he leaped off, allowing them to run wild on the main track.

That a wreck did not result, with appalling loss of life, was because a dispatcher saw the engines pass the station, noticed there was no one on the two rear ones and that the tender of the last one was missing.

Warning all agents to sidetrack all trains, a gang was sent in pursuit on a handcar. The engines were found standing on the main track ten miles out where they had stopped for lack of steam.

Chapman may have to serve five years in the penitentiary for his wild prank.

Missouri Pacific Man Buried.

The funeral of Lewis Rose, a Missouri Pacific sweeper, who died Friday afternoon, as chronicled in the Democrat-Sentinel Sunday, was held at the family residence, 408 East Seventeenth street, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. W. A. McClanahan, pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. church, South, officiated. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

be sentenced to a term in the penitentiary.

Death of a Shopman's Son.

Marion Kenneth Pfeister, a 2½-year-old son of James Pfeister, a Missouri Pacific machinist's helper, died from throat trouble at his parents' home Sunday and was buried in Crown Hill cemetery his afternoon, the Rev. R. C. Miller, pastor of the East Sedalia Baptist church, conducting funeral services at 2:30 p. m.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 310.

Champaign and Urbana, Ill., voted dry two years ago. The saloon men predicted that taxes would go higher than the court house dome. This shows how bad they missed it.

1906—Wet, $8.02 on $100.

1907—Without saloons, $7.71 on $100.

1908—Without saloons, $7.22 on $100.

Less Crime—

Total arrests last wet year, 207.

Drunken arrests last wet year, 23.

Total arrests last dry year, 148.

Arrests for drunkenness dry year, 71.

Many of these drunks came from Danville, a wet spot.

Here is what U. C. Johnson, vice president of Title & Trust bank, says: "We have a saving department. It has greatly increased both in number of depositors and amount of deposits."

Mr. Burr Nelson, of Nelson's Grocery store, says: "Our business is better than it ever was; collections are better; not near so many bad bills."

F. K. Robeson, proprietor of Champaign Big Store, said: "After the city went dry we noticed a big increase in our Saturday night trade. At first I was at a loss how to account for it. I spoke to our cashier, asking his opinion. 'Why, that's easy: the saloons have gone,' he said. It has been that way ever since; business is the best that we have ever had."

W. L. Wiese, an M. K. & T. brakeman on the Sedalia-Nevada local, has been assigned to the Clinton switch engine.

William Hausgen, supervisor of bridges and buildings for the Missouri Pacific, went east on train No. 4 last night.

D. Stoffel, assistant claim agent for the M. K. & T., made a business visit at points on the south end of the road today.

H. A. Pratt, an M. K. & T. conductor, is laying off. Pat Downs is filling the place and C. W. Neely is running for Conductor Downs.

L. C. Redmond, assistant general foreman of the Missouri Pacific telegraph department, returned this afternoon from a business visit in Kansas.

John W. Evans, secret service officer for the M. K. & T., made a business visit at Warrensburg this morning, after which he will go to Oklahoma on business.

Chester Holland, night ticket agent for the Missouri Pacific at Jefferson City, dined with his parents here Sunday, and returned to the state capital at 4:30 p. m. on train No. 8.

The bulletin board at the Missouri Pacific register room was "cleaned" today—in other words, some two hundred old bulletins were removed to make room for additional "done" to be handed down by the officials.

GIRL MADE HOME IN DEPOT

Returns After Seeing Picture in Newspaper Story.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 7.—Catherine B. Day, the 16-year-old daughter of Arthur Day, secretary of the National Pipe Bending company, who had been missing since Friday, returned to her home yesterday.

According to the girl, instead of going to school Friday morning she went to Derby and spent the day there. In the afternoon she returned to New Haven by train and took a local train for New York. She told the conductor she was going to New York to visit her aunt. On the arrival of the train at the Lexington avenue station it was dark, and she was afraid to venture out on the streets and spent the night there.

Saturday she spent the day and night in the Grand Central station, getting her meals in the station restaurant. Sunday morning she purchased a paper and on seeing her picture and a story of her disappearance decided to return home.

GNAWED EACH OTHER

Battle Was in Rivalry Over a Fickle Widower.

Allentown, Pa., Feb. 7.—After a bitter fight for the affections of a widower 50 years old, Mrs. Agnes Holdridge and Mrs. Annie Wassil, widows on the verge of 40, yesterday had each other arrested for aggravated assault and battery and mayhem.

John Modes, the widower in question, for several years had been boarding at the home of Mrs. Holdridge. Last month he moved to the home of Mrs. Wassil.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Holdridge called, with the intention of getting him back. It is alleged that she was violently assaulted by Mrs. Wassil, who lost a thumb and much of her hair. Mrs. Holdridge lost a piece of flesh from one hip and received various gashes on her face and arms.

STORK KEEPS COMING

Too Many Babies Arrive in Homes of Hargadine Heirs.

St. Louis, Feb. 7.—Babies are arriving so fast in the homes of the heirs of the late William Hargadine, one of the millionaire founders of the Hargadine-McKittick Dry Goods Co., that lawyers and the courts are wondering whether the estate ever will be settled.

Several hundred thousand dollars' worth of real estate is being held in trust to be turned into cash for the beneficiaries. But babies have persistently interposed legal obstacles. These cherubs have not only defied the courts and lawyers, by their advent, but have thwarted the plans of their trustee, who has been striving for three years to get a court setting. Each time a petition has been filed, however, the announcement of birth in the family has called all legal processes to a halt, for, under the law, no estate can be settled with out entering appearance of every heir.

WIDOW NOT TO DELAY

Directs Attorney to Refrain From Obstructive Tactics.

Paris, Mo., Feb. 7.—Late last night Mrs. Alma Vaughn, widow of the late Prof. J. T. Vaughn, instructed her attorneys to interpose no resistance whatever to the examination of Prof. Vaughn's viscera by State Chemist Schweitzer at Columbia. Mo., nor to make any application to any court for delaying or thwarting an analysis.

This means that the analysts will begin next Wednesday and that the date of the final session and verdict of the coroner's jury will be delayed until about Feb. 19, instead of the 15th, as originally planned.

After agreeing yesterday to a delay until Feb. 12 in opening the jars containing the viscera, Coroner Whitson changed his mind and ordered the analysis begun Feb. 9. A restraining order was being discussed by Mrs. Vaughn's attorneys last night, when she insisted that no opposition be made.

GOOD AUTO RACE SPOILED

DePalma Bursts Tire While Running Close With Oldfield.

New Orleans, Feb. 7.—The second Mardi Gras automobile meet at New Orleans was concluded last afternoon at the fair grounds race track. Barney Oldfield defeated Ralph DePalma in what was scheduled to be the chief event of the meet.

The contest was to have been a ten-mile match race. In the fourth mile DePalma burst a tire and was forced out. Up to that time he and Oldfield had been running neck and neck and the race promised to be a close one. DePalma used a Fiat and Oldfield a Benz car.

THE CHEAPEST LIVING

It is Cheapest in South and Highest in the East.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The difference in the cost of living for the traveling employees of the department of agriculture in the different sections of the country has been shown in testimony just submitted to the committee on expenditures in the department of agriculture by Chief Disbursing Officer Zappone, of that department.

In the south the expense for lodging and meals as shown by their sworn statements averages between $1 and $2.50 a day; in the far west $2 and $3.50; in the central west $3.40 and in the east $4 to $6. In New York, Boston and other large cities it is very difficult to obtain satisfactory accommodations—room and meals—within $5.

Honest Cop Finds Man With Big Roll Napping in Alley.

Huntington, W. Va., Feb. 7.—A policeman on his rounds through a dark alley Sunday stumbled over the half-conscious form of a man with $3,000 in real money bulging from his inside coat pocket.

The officer took $50 of it, but only after protest, as a reward, when the man explained at police headquarters that he was George Smith, a farmer of St. Albans, who had sold his place Saturday and ended a celebration with a nap in the alley.

New York, Feb. 7.—In the days when "Big Tim" Sullivan, state senator and Tammany leader, was small and down at the heel, his school teacher gave him a pair of shoes.

He never forgot the kindness, and for many years he has commemorated it on the 6th day of each February by a distribution of stockings and shoes to all the needy of the Bowery. Five thousand pairs of each were given away Sunday.
